

JCU Program

BEEF AUSTRALIA 2024

Visit the JCU Pavilion and check out our free presentations, interactive activities and hear about the courses offered at JCU. Location: Site No R0

Presentation Schedule

Check out our free presentations that will be running throughout the week.

SCAN TO SECURE
YOUR FREE TICKETS

Tuesday 7 May

8.30 am - 9.15 am

Careers in Health at JCU

Interested in studying at JCU?

Find out more about courses and how to apply.

12.00 pm - 12.45 pm

TNQ Drought Resilience Adoption and Innovation Hub

Building resilience to future drought.

1.30 pm - 2.00 pm

Vaccines against Tick Fever

Find out how the deadly widespread tick fever, known as Babesia bovis could be avoided within the beef and dairy industries.

Wednesday 8 May

8.30 am - 9.15 am

Studying Biomedical Sciences at JCU

Find out how JCU's Bachelor of Biomedical Science's provides a vast number of exciting pathways into medical and healthcare careers.

1.00 pm - 1.45 pm

Challenging Government Decisions

A toolkit for producers dealing with Government.

3.30 pm - 4.15 pm

Farm and Succession Planning

Discussing the linkages between the producer's journey and the expertise that helped along the way.

Thursday 9 May

8.30 am - 9.15 am

Studying Veterinary Science at JCU

Find out what makes JCU one of the best places in Australia to study veterinary science and why our graduates are highly sought after by employers.

9.30 am - 10.30 am

Australian Rural Leadership Foundation Forum

How to meet unique challenges with leadership as a tool

– Raising leadership steaks in rural, regional and remote communities.

4.00 pm - 4.45 pm

The journey of a JCU student in the agriculture industry

Hear from JCU students about their journeys of navigating study, research, and innovation within agricultural industries.

Friday 10 May

8.30 am - 9.15 am

Studying Allied Health and Nursing at JCU

Wondering where a career in Healthcare can take you? Come and explore the many healthcare pathways you can undertake at JCU.

JCU Activities | 9.00 am - 5.00 pm daily

Check out the free activities that will be taking place in the JCU Pavilion.

- 1 Pregnant or not?
Can you find the answer?
- 2 Under the microscope
Things that bite and itch but you can't see them – the culprits revealed.
- 3 Business branding challenge - station edition
Unleash your creativity and craft a brand.
- 4 Pharmacy Webster packs
Ensure the correct dose is taken at the right time.
- 5 Which plants are poisonous for cows?
Can you tell the difference?
- 6 Virtual Reality Demonstration
Take part in an exciting, bovine themed, hands-on Virtual Reality demonstration.
- 7 Treating a snake bite
How to identify symptoms, apply bandages and immobilise the limb and patient and what to do next.
- 8 Health surveys
Fill in a health survey with JCU's health professionals, identify any early signs of health issues.

For more information, please visit experience.jcu.edu.au/BeefAustralia2024

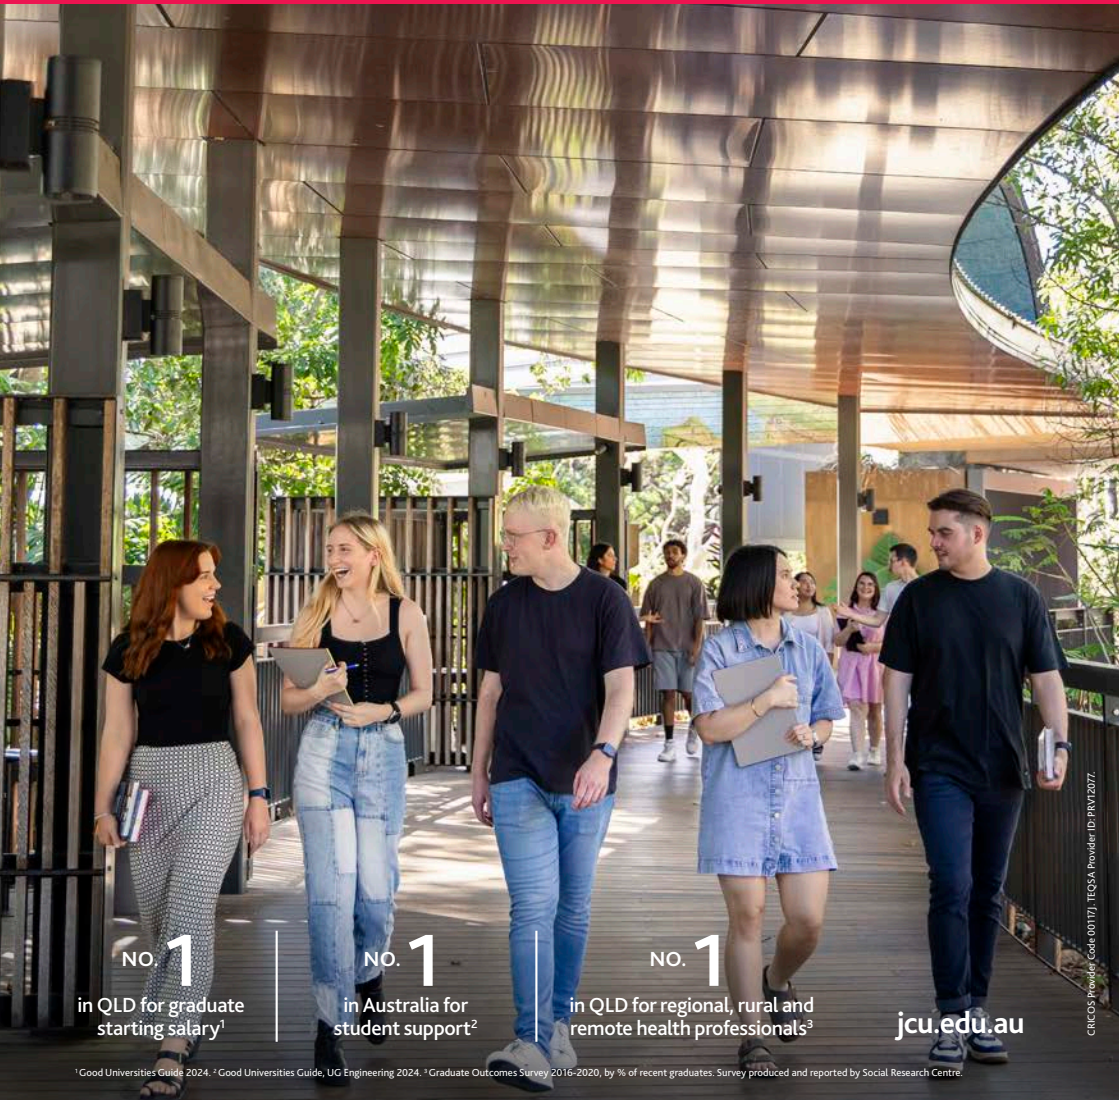

2024 OPEN DAY

TOWNSVILLE • SATURDAY 13 JULY 2024

CAIRNS • SATURDAY 27 JULY 2024

Register at:

jcu.edu.au/openday

NO. 1

in QLD for graduate starting salary¹

NO. 1

in Australia for student support²

NO. 1

in QLD for regional, rural and remote health professionals³

jcu.edu.au

CRICOS Provider Code 00111J, TQCSA Provider ID: PRV12077

¹ Good Universities Guide 2024. ² Good Universities Guide, UG Engineering 2024. ³ Graduate Outcomes Survey 2016-2020, by % of recent graduates. Survey produced and reported by Social Research Centre.